

Soy Claim Challenges?

A percent of the soybean meal you receive does not meet product specifications and is claimable, but the claim process can be a painful one.

Are you experiencing any of the following challenges in your soy claim program?

- Too many soy claims (different locations/suppliers/labs/ingredient types)
- Not enough time to manually input data and send claim emails
- Difficulties managing claim information and summary reports
 - Errors in information
 - Mixing up claims
 - Misplacing data
 - Missed deadlines for submitting claims
 - Unsettled payments
- Data security

Not Anymore!

Ask an Evonik expert about our Soy Claim System and what it can do for your soy claim program.
